Park Equipment Updates

From the Desk of Mayor Stammel

For the fourth consecutive year, the majority on the Rensselaer Common Council have opted to use taxpayer money to outsource budget modifications, bypassing direct collaboration with Mayor Stammel, who submitted the budget on time. This decision will again delay the budget, costing residents thousands of dollars.

Residents are urged to question why the council can't fulfill their responsibilities on time. The trend of passing the buck persists, with the council majority choosing to hire external help instead of working with the mayor to finalize the city's budget. This year, they plan to spend $20,000 on an Albany lobbying firm to handle their duties.

Mayor Stammel's invitations for meetings have been ignored by the council, which prefers to delegate their duties. Ironically, this is the same council that imposed a spending freeze to restrict the mayor but has no issue spending $20,000 of taxpayer money on a consulting firm they are friendly with.

Rensselaer residents continue to bear the financial burden of the Common Council's budgetary antics. This council has a history of turning balanced budgets into unbalanced spending plans, resulting in higher taxes for the community.

By Alderperson : Michael DeFrancisco #6 Seconded by Alderperson : Jim Van Vleet RESOLUTION APPROVING AGREEMENT WITH BUDGET CONSULTANT WHEREAS, the Common Council of the City of Rensselaer has the need for professional expert Budget Consultant services to assist the Common Council in completing its review and approval of the 2023/2024 City Budget; and WHEREAS, the attached Agreement for professional expert Budget Consultant services will address the aforementioned needs of the City Council; and WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms and conditions contained in the attached agreement annexed hereto, made a part hereof, and incorporated herein by reference, Park Strategies, LLC agrees to provide the needed Professional Expert Budget Consultant Services, and the compensation to be paid in relation thereto is fair and reasonable, and will be within the financial parameters of the City for the subject services; and NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Common Council for the City of Rensselaer hereby approves and ratifies the attached agreement. Approved by the Mayor and sufficiently this, 7th day of June, 2023 Michael Stammel Mayor	CITY OF RENSSELAER OFFICE OF THE MAYOR CITY HALL 62 WASHINGTON STREET RENSSELAER, NEW YORK 12144 (518) 462-9511 Fax: (518) 462-9895 June 15, 2023 City Clerk City Hall 62 Washington Street Rensselaer, New York 12144 RE: Veto Message Dear Clerk, Pursuant to the Rensselaer City Charter, Section 67, I hereby veto Resolution No. 6, a "RESOLUTION APPROVING AGREEMENT WITH BUDGET CONSULTANT", passed by the Common Council at the June 7, 2023 Common Council Meeting. I object to such Resolution as a waste of Taxpayers monies in that the City already employs a Comptroller who is available to advise the Common Council on the proposed Budget. I stand ready to work with the Common Council on addressing the needs of the residents of the City of Rensselaer as they relate to the subject matter of the vetoed Resolution. Thank you for your kind attention and assistance. Respectfully, Michael Stammel Michael Stammel Mayor

Sign the Petition to Close the Dunn C&D Landfill

It's hard to believe there are only 215 signatures on this petition for this very important issue. The fight needs to continue for a safer and cleaner environment for our children. The Waste Connection's Dunn C&D Landfill next to our school poses a serious health risk, and we need your support to shut it down. The City and Legislature will be meeting with DEC this month to demand closure.

Join us in this crucial effort by signing the petition. We need 785 more signatures. Please scan the QR code below or cut and paste this link into your web browser

Update on City Parks Equipment Installation

As you may know, our Neighborhood Safe Park Project has been delayed due to manufacturer shipment errors of critical parts needed to finish the playground installations. Although the majority of the parks appear assembled, the pieces missing are essential to ensuring the safe use of the playground equipment.

Gallo Construction, our contractor has been working closely over the past month with our distributor to correct this error. Both Gallo and our distributor are equally eager to finalize installation and open the playgrounds to our community.

The missing parts are scheduled to arrive in the second week of August, with installation and safety surfacing set to continue immediately following receiving the missing pieces. It will take approximately two weeks for all of the work to be completed, setting the opening date closer to the end of Au-

Groundbreaking Event at Barnet Mills Marks a New Era for Rensselaer

The transformation of the former William Barnet & Son Shoddy Mill is the latest example of revitalizing relics from the region's industrial heyday. A groundbreaking ceremony was held on Tuesday, July 30th for the Barnet Mills Redevelopment Project in Rensselaer.

The historic site along the Hudson River is being redeveloped into approximately 70 apartments and 20,000 sq. ft. of commercial space. This event signifies the start of an exciting new chapter for the City of Rensselaer. "This project will be the centerpiece of our city's future economic growth," says Mayor Mike Stammel.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Mayor Stammel, whose vision and dedication have been instrumental in making this project a reality. We also want to thank the many elected officials and business partners who have supported this vision, contributing their time, effort, and resources to this transformational endeavor.

"Mayor Stammel has the right team here in Rensselaer to make this project happen," says Assemblyman John McDonald (D). "We may actually put a satellite office here in Rensselaer because we are here so much," adds Rensselaer County Chamber of Commerce President Norris Pearson. When Mayor Stammel ran for re-election in 2021, remediation work had begun at the Barnett Mills/Hilton Center.

At that time, there were no definite plans for the site, but Mayor Stammel promised to work hard to get a great project underway. Promises made. Promises kept!

Congratulations, Rensselaer! We are finally making CHANGE! IT'S HERE!!!

Rensselaer City Police Department's National Night Out: A Community Success Story

The Rensselaer City Police Department's National Night Out event on August 6th was a resounding success, bringing together our community for an evening of fun, engagement, and safety awareness. This annual event, designed to strengthen the bond between law enforcement and the community, saw an impressive turnout this year.

Despite a last-minute change of venue to Riverfront Park, the transition went smoothly, thanks to the efficient coordination by our dedicated police department and the tireless efforts of the City's Department of Public Works. Their swift action in preparing Riverfront Park on short notice ensured the event's success. The picturesque setting of Riverfront Park provided the perfect backdrop for an evening of camaraderie and community spirit.

Children were especially delighted with the event, as they received wonderful gifts generously donated by local businesses and community partners. The joy on their faces was a testament to the impact of the community's support and generosity. The gifts ranged from educational supplies and toys to sports equipment and instruments, ensuring that there was something special for every child in attendance. Activities at the event included interactive safety demonstrations, fun games, and opportunities for kids to meet and engage with our local police officers. These interactions helped build trust and foster positive relationships between the youth and law enforcement officers.

Local vendors and organizations set up booths, offering information about community services, health resources, and safety tips. Attendees had the chance to connect with various community groups, learn about the valuable resources available to them, and enjoy delicious food and refreshments.

The success of this year's National Night Out is a testament to the collaborative spirit of the Rensselaer community, highlighting the importance of coming together to support one another and build a safer, stronger environment. The Rensselaer City Police Department extends its heartfelt thanks to the CSX First Responders Children's Foundation for donating all the toys, the City of Rensselaer Police Officers' Union for their generous donations and hard work, the Gerald O'Neil Post for providing funds that allowed us to rent the bounce house, Mega Kone for donating a dunk tank, Cugino's Pizzeria for contributing food and multiple resources to help make the event happen, and the Fire Department for cooking the hamburgers and hotdogs.

We look forward to continuing this tradition and making next year's National Night Out even more memorable. Remember it's the 1st Tuesday in August so mark your calendars. Thank you to everyone who joined us in celebrating our community and supporting our mission to keep Rensselaer safe and welcoming for all.

City Signage Project:

Residents Encouraged to Report Damaged or Missing Signs

Once the budget is approved, the City will embark on a comprehensive signage project to install new signs and replace existing ones throughout the area. This initiative aims to enhance public safety, improve navigation, and maintain the aesthetic appeal of our neighborhoods.

The City is reaching out to residents for their assistance in identifying any street signs, stop signs, or other public signage that require replacement. Your local knowledge is invaluable in ensuring we address all areas in need of attention.

If you are aware of any damaged, missing, or illegible signs, please contact the Department of Public Works (DPW) Office at 518 462-9616. Your timely reports will help us prioritize and efficiently manage the signage project. Together, we can work towards a safer and more navigable city for everyone.
